ABIGAIL POLVADO

We are so proud of you and the accomplishments you've made in your juvenescence. You've always had an inner compulsion to do good for your own contentment along with your urge to help others. It's in your soul to be a humanitarian and through the career you choose and life you live, you'll have meaningful impacts on each person you meet. Some advice from us; don't sweat the small stuff, trust what your inner self feels, take that road of uncertainty, and always remember to call your parents.

Love, Dad and Ashleigh

Abba,

Let's just say, the 18 years that have passed in your life have been amaaaazing (insert jazz hands.) Words can't be written that will accurately express how proud of you we are and how much we love you! From day one, you were destined to do big things. You have always had the eye of the tiger (roar!), through the uphills and downhills of life, the latter of which helped you form yourself. As you graduate high school and head off to college, remember, there's always gonna be another mountain. You're always gonna want to make it move. It's always gonna be an uphill battle. Sometimes you're gonna have to lose.
